

Beer and Wine in Convenience Stores

The Ontario Convenience Stores Association has been working hard to bring you the option to sell beer and wine in your stores.

The new Ontario Premier, Doug Ford has stated that this will come about. We want to hold him to his word and the OCSA is working on an implementation plan for the province with our government relations firms.

Do you want the right to sell Beer and Wine in YOUR store? YES NO

Are you a member of the OCSA? YES NO

Join Now! We strongly encourage you to join the OCSA to ensure that you are on the list for the rollout strategy which includes age training, logistics training, timelines and follow up communication.
